

Dear sirs

Artist statement

I am an Egyptian artist ...as Sean I work broad spectrum of styles and mediums, .I am fascinated by human emotions, sensuality and space. I search for a universal form of imagery in order to unlock specific reactions and emotions on the observer within each one of my speak .

Currently I am represented By galleria360 In Florence , Italy . and I am working in my studio most days...

My cv. and biography

Hope, love, and courage are among the feelings artist Hayam Elsayed delivers through the versatile characters in her portraits. Her inspiration comes from looking at people's faces, watching the way they laugh, cry, and react to all the senses surrounding them. Studying in Florence, Elsayed became fascinated by the portraits she saw there. "I could feel the painting, the color, the design of the portrait itself, as if I was a part of the painting. Looking back at that time I can see how my life and my whole perspective towards art had changed," she explains.

Egyptian-born Elsayed's first artistic medium was drawing in pencil but transformed her work when she moved onto paints, noting, "When I held the brush, I felt a different motion go through my hand while I was painting my first painting." Through her strident use of color and finding the emotions hidden within her subjects, Elsayed breathes life into her paintings through detailed drawing techniques and the color choices that highlight the subjects' intense gazes..Her striking works focus on the rights and treatment of women and hopes her paintings will heal and help people.
